

“Sacred Allotments and Arrangements”
Ezekiel 45

This chapter is divided into 5 sections:

vv. 1-8 ~ _____ for the sacred district.

vv. 9-12 ~ _____ to do what is right

vv. 13- 17 ~ _____ of the people to the Prince

vv. 18-20 ~ The renewed celebration of the _____ and

v. 1a Q. Who gets the first fruits of the land?

A.

v. 1b Q. What was the size?

A.

v. 2 Q. What is further designated?

A. _____ feet square = sanctuary; _____ feet square around it as a buffer.

v. 3-4 Q. What is also measured off?

A. An area _____ miles long and _____ miles wide will be designated for the priests, their houses, as well as the sanctuary proper.

v. 5 Note: The same measured area will be given to the _____ and their families.

v. 6 Q. What adjoins this area?

A.

1. It is for a _____.
2. The dimensions are _____ miles long by _____ miles wide.
3. It joins the _____ portion.
4. It is for the house of _____.

vv. 7-8a Q. What does the Prince inherit?

A.

1. The prince inherits on _____ (E/W) of the sacred district.
2. This will be his portion in the land of _____.

v. 8b Q. What comparative did God make?

A. It won't be like the old _____ days when the leaders kicked people off of their _____ lands.

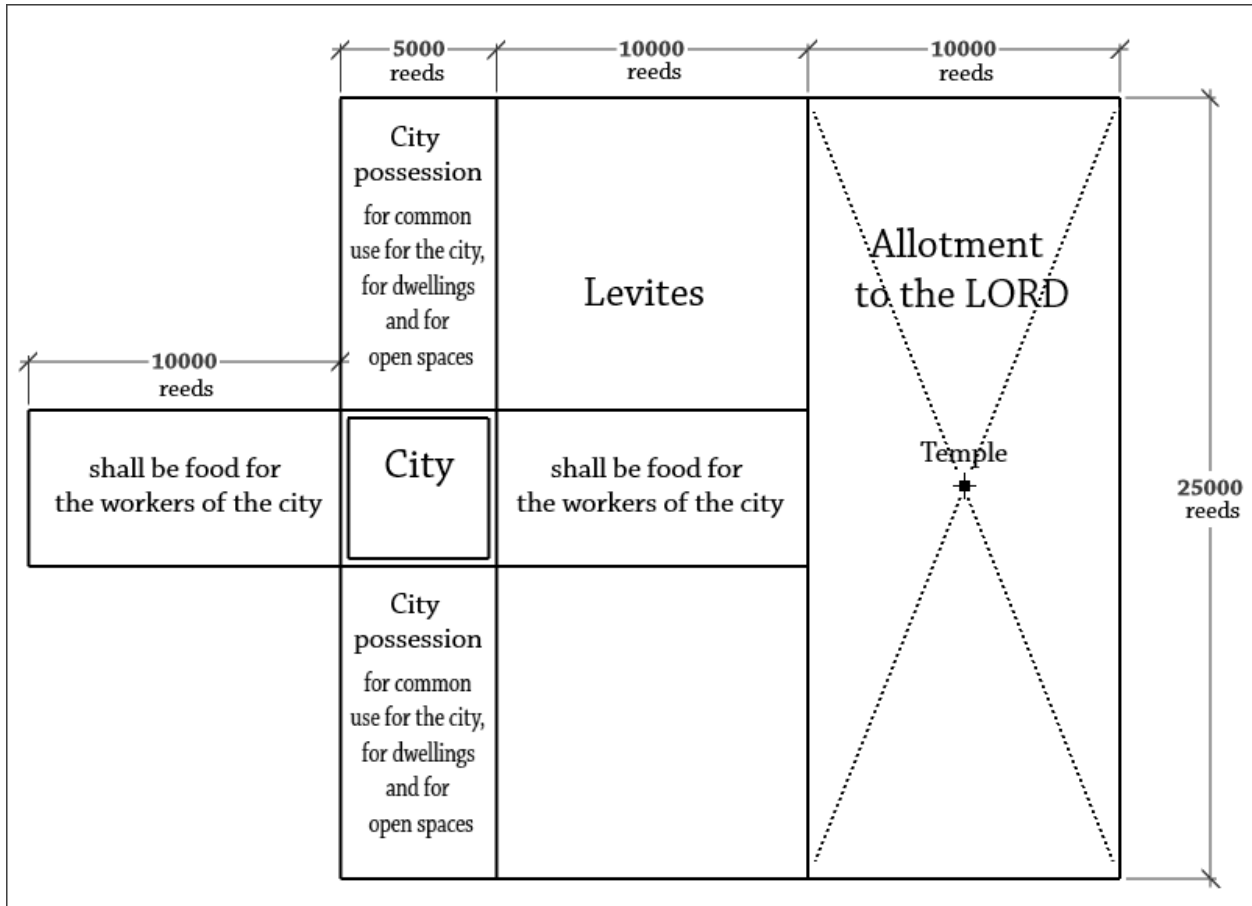

vv. 9-12 Q. What are the commands to the current princes?

A.

1. Stop the _____ and _____ toward your people.
2. Stop _____ your people.
3. Stop _____ your people through dishonest scales.

vv. 13-17 Note: The people are to contribute a " _____" of certain products and specific amounts to the Prince, e.g. wheat, barley, oil, sheep, etc....and in turn, the Prince _____ the needed offerings on behalf of the people.

vv. 18-25 Note: The rest of the text describes the offerings the Prince is to offer on special occasions. In the Millennium, the nation still celebrates the main feasts of the _____ (vv.18-20), _____ (vv. 21-24), and _____ (v. 25).

The Millennial Temple

Ezekiel 45

50 Miles

25,000 Reeds

